

HELEN BRANDER

LLM by Research, Charity Law Unit, University of Liverpool, 2000

LLB (Hons.) English and German Laws, University of Liverpool, 1999

[Called: Lincoln's Inn 2002]

Helen Brander commenced her career in Chancery before moving into general common law, concentrating particularly on family and chancery / civil work. She is experienced at High Court and County Court level, and is able to deal effectively with difficult and vulnerable clients.

Area of Practice: Family / Matrimonial

Helen Brander acts and advises in all aspects of family and associated areas of law, including:

- ancillary relief;
- private law Children Act proceedings;
- public law Children Act proceedings;
- claims under the Trusts of Land and Appointment of Trustees Act 1996;
- claims relating to the Inheritance (Provision for Family and Dependents) Act 1975;
- wills and probate disputes.

Area of Practice: Chancery / Civil / Commercial

Helen Brander acts, drafts documents and advises in many areas of Chancery / Commercial / Civil law, including:

- contractual disputes;
- individual and company insolvency;
- land and boundary disputes;
- claims under the Trusts of Land and Appointment of Trustees Act 1996;
- disputes relating to wills and probate;
- residential and commercial landlord and tenant;
- housing.

Professional Memberships:

Family Law Bar Association

South East Circuit

